

Michael Watz

United States, 1958

After retiring as a Senior Corporate Chef, I needed a creative art focused passion in my life. In the mid 1970's I purchased my first camera a used CanonFTB model and on my day off documented the scene in Los Angeles during that era. Now instead of creating healthy and meals I have dived head first into today's photography. Using today's technology and advanced camera features.
